

FEMA is Seeking Multifamily Properties to Support Disaster Survivors

FEMA is requesting information from owners of multifamily properties that can be repaired to local, state and federal standards and be offered as temporary housing to survivors of Hurricane Ian.

Multifamily properties for consideration should be in and around the coastal communities impacted by Hurricane Ian to include Charlotte, Collier, Desoto, Hardee, Lee and Sarasota Counties. FEMA encourages all interested multifamily properties to consider participating.

The deadline for property managers and properties to reply to this request for information is January 9, 2023.

What is Multifamily Lease and Repair program?

Multifamily Lease and Repair (MLR) is a form of temporary housing assistance that allows the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) to repair or make improvements to existing multifamily rental/residential property for the purpose of providing temporary housing to eligible FEMA applicants. The properties in MLR are to be offered as temporary housing to eligible disaster survivors. The properties must be available for a term of no less than 18 months, with the option of lease extension. The properties should be complexes that are able to accommodate a considerable number of people in a single location. Each property must have been previously used as a multifamily housing complex and contain multiple rental units. Hotels, hospitals, nursing homes, etc. are not considered residential properties and are not authorized for MLR. The site must be repairable to local, state, and federal regulations within a four-month period and cannot be located in a floodway.

MLR is not intended to repair or improve individual units to rehouse existing tenants.

What conditions does the property need to meet?

- All property management companies or owners must register to do business with FEMA through the System for Award Management (SAM) at SAM.gov.
- The property owner must provide all property management services, including building maintenance.
- The vacant units on the property must be available to be leased exclusively to FEMA for use as temporary housing for eligible survivors for a term expiring no earlier than 18 months, with the possibility of contract extension.
- The property must be in an area with access to community and wraparound services such as accessible public transportation, schools, fire and emergency services, grocery stores, etc.
- Each unit must provide complete and independent living facilities for one or more persons and contain permanent provisions for living, sleeping, cooking and sanitation.
- The property must contain multiple units.
