

Hurricane Ian Recovery

Nov. 2, 2022

Multiple Housing Options for Hurricane Ian Survivors

The state of Florida and FEMA are providing several kinds of assistance to Floridians in 26 counties whose homes were damaged or destroyed by Hurricane Ian. FEMA grants can help with repair or replacement of hurricane-damaged primary homes and rental assistance for temporary housing while making repairs. Eligible residents in the 26 counties are also being considered for FEMA Transitional Sheltering Assistance (TSA), which provides temporary lodging at hotels for eligible applicants. FEMA also has authorized Direct Temporary Housing for Charlotte, Collier, DeSoto, Hardee, Lee and Sarasota counties and will provide transportable temporary housing units and travel trailers, as well as direct leasing of homes for eligible applicants.

Debris Cleanup

The Florida Division of Emergency Management (FDEM) is accepting applications for the Hurricane Ian Debris Cleanup Program to assist with the removal of debris, including displaced and abandoned vehicles, vessels, and other titled property from qualifying private and commercial properties, as well as waterways throughout participating counties. Individuals can apply online at iandebriscleanup.com/.

Disaster Distress

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration \(SAMSHA\) Disaster Distress Helpline provides 24/7 crisis counseling and support to survivors experiencing emotional distress related to Hurricane Ian. SAMSHA is an agency of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Call 800-985-5990, visit www.samhsa.gov/ or text TalkWithUs for English or Hablanos for Spanish to 66746 to connect with a trained crisis counselor. Spanish-speakers can call the helpline and press “2” for bilingual support. Callers can also connect with counselors who can communicate in more than 100 other languages with assistance from third-party interpretation services. For people who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing and for whom American Sign Language (ASL) is your primary or preferred language, use your videophone-enabled device to call 800-985-5990 or click on “ASL Now” at disasterdistress.samhsa.gov to be connected with a DDH crisis worker fluent in ASL.

Mold: Update Your FEMA Application

If you have not already applied for FEMA assistance and have mold in your home from Hurricane Ian, apply online at DisasterAssistance.gov, call 800-621-3362 or visit a Disaster Recovery Center. If you have already applied for FEMA assistance and now have mold in your home, call FEMA to update your application.

FEMA May Contact You

FEMA may call, text, or email to follow up on your disaster assistance application. When FEMA calls, the representative will always provide their name, affiliation, reason for the call, callback number (either 800-621-3362 or another number) and other relevant information. Text message and email will include the reason for the outreach. The FEMA representative will ask a series of questions to verify your identity before discussing your application.

Verification items include:

- Last 4 digits of the applicant or co-applicant’s Social Security number
- Current mailing address
- Damaged dwelling address
- Current phone number If FEMA is unable to reach you, we will leave a callback number on your voicemail.

When calling back, FEMA will follow the same verification process.

FEMA Is Hiring

Come to work for FEMA and help your community recover from Hurricane Ian.

FEMA is conducting local hiring for more than 300 jobs in Brandon, Fort Myers, Kissimmee, Orlando and Sarasota. The agency is seeking people with experience in customer service, logistics, environmental protection, engineering, emergency management and other job categories. These positions are full-time, 120-day appointments that may be extended depending on operational needs.

How to apply: Interested candidates are encouraged to apply online through USAJobs.gov. As the disaster operational needs shift, new positions will be posted on USAJobs. Candidates can be notified when FEMA Local Hire positions post. You can save a search to help you look for jobs in your area of interest through USAJobs. For instructions, please visit USAJOBS Help Center | How to save a search.

Documenting Ownership and Occupancy

FEMA has taken steps to help owners and renters of disaster-damaged property validate ownership and/or occupancy as part of the application for financial assistance. FEMA now accepts a broader range of documentation. Visit: Verifying Home Ownership or Occupancy | FEMA.gov for more information.

It's Important to Submit the SBA Disaster Loan Application

FEMA may refer applicants to the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) with information on how to apply for a disaster loan. If your application is approved, you are not obligated to accept the SBA loan, but it's important to submit the loan application as soon as possible to prevent you from being disqualified from other possible financial assistance from FEMA. It's Important to Submit an SBA Loan Application | FEMA.gov | The Importance of Applying for SBA Video

Critical Needs Assistance

FEMA may provide financial assistance to applicants in the 26 counties designated for Individual Assistance who have immediate or critical needs because they are displaced from their primary dwelling. Critical Needs Assistance | FEMA.gov

Clean and Sanitize Assistance

Eligible applicants may qualify for a one-time $300 payment to help with cleanup of their damaged dwelling. For more information, visit fema.gov/fact-sheet/clean-and-sanitize-assistance.

Operation Blue Roof

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, in coordination with FEMA, has been assisting eligible homeowners with temporary roof repairs. Operation Blue Roof is a free service to homeowners impacted by Hurricane Ian in Charlotte, Collier, DeSoto, Lee, and Sarasota counties. Final blue roof installations are scheduled to be completed by Nov. 5.

Flood Insurance

If your National Flood Insurance Program policy has expired, you may be able to reinstate it without a lapse in coverage. FEMA has extended the renewal grace period for Florida flood insurance policyholders affected by Hurricane Ian. The extension applies to policyholders whose expiration dates were Aug. 25, 2022, through Oct. 23, 2022. If the renewal date was Oct. 23, 2022, the policy may be renewed by Jan. 21, 2023. The NFIP also has extended the proof of loss requirement for policyholders who experienced flood damage from Hurricane Ian from the standard 60 days to 365 days from the date of loss. For questions about NFIP, call 800-759-8656 or visit Floodsmart.gov.
