

Hurricane Ian Recovery

Nov. 8, 2022

Disaster Recovery Centers Will Close Temporarily for Severe Weather

Disaster Recovery Centers in Florida will close temporarily this week as a precaution for predicted severe weather. All centers and mobile units will close at the end of the day today (Nov. 8). They will reopen as weather permits.

Flood Insurance Policyholders Given Additional Time to Renew

National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) policyholders in Florida affected by Hurricane Ian can renew their recently expired policies without the consequence of a lapse in coverage. The renewal extension applies to policyholders whose flood insurance policy expiration was between Aug. 25 and Oct. 23, 2022. FEMA has also extended the proof of loss requirement for Florida flood insurance policyholders who experienced flood damage from Hurricane Ian from 60 to 365 days. Contact your insurance agent or insurance company to discuss your policy. If you do not have this information, call the NFIP at 877-336-2627.

Debris Cleanup

The Florida Division of Emergency Management (FDEM) is accepting applications for the Hurricane Ian Debris Cleanup Program to assist with the removal of debris, including displaced and abandoned vehicles, vessels, and other titled property from qualifying private and commercial properties, as well as waterways throughout participating counties. Individuals can apply online at iandebriscleanup.com/. For assistance with applications or for general questions, please call FDEM's Hurricane Ian Debris Cleanup Hotline at 850-961-2002 or email IanDebrisCleanup@em.myflorida.com.

By the Numbers

FEMA Teams in Communities

Disaster Survivor Assistance teams are knocking on doors to meet Hurricane Ian survivors where they live and help them apply for financial assistance from FEMA. The teams carry FEMA photo identification and never ask for money.

Disaster Distress

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration \(SAMSHA\) Disaster Distress Helpline provides 24/7 crisis counseling and support to survivors experiencing emotional distress related to Hurricane Ian. SAMSHA is an agency of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Call 800-985-5990, visit samhsa.gov/ or text TalkWithUs for English or Hablanos for Spanish to 66746 to connect with a trained crisis counselor. Spanish-speakers can call the helpline and press “2” for bilingual support. Callers can also connect with counselors who can communicate in more than 100 other languages with assistance from third-party interpretation services. For people who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing and for whom American Sign Language (ASL) is your primary or preferred language, use your videophone to call 800-985-5990 or click on “ASL Now” at disasterdistress.samhsa.gov to be connected with a DDH crisis worker fluent in ASL.

FEMA May Contact You

FEMA may call, text, or email to follow up on your disaster assistance application. When FEMA calls, the representative will always provide their name, affiliation, reason for the call, callback number (either 800-621-3362 or another number) and other relevant information. Text message and email will include the reason for the outreach. The FEMA representative will ask a series of questions to verify your identity before discussing your application.

Verification items include:

- Last 4 digits of the applicant or co-applicant’s Social Security number
- Current mailing address
- Damaged dwelling address
- Current phone number If FEMA is unable to reach you, we will leave a callback number on your voicemail.

When calling back, FEMA will follow the same verification process.

FEMA Is Hiring

Come to work for FEMA and help your community recover from Hurricane Ian. FEMA is conducting local hiring for more than 300 jobs in Brandon, Fort Myers, Kissimmee, Orlando and Sarasota. The agency is seeking people with experience in customer service, logistics, environmental protection, engineering, emergency management and other job categories. These positions are full-time, 120-day appointments that may be extended depending on operational needs.

How to apply: Interested candidates are encouraged to apply online through USAJobs.gov. As the disaster operational needs shift, new positions will be posted on USAJobs. Candidates can be notified when FEMA Local Hire positions post. You can save a search to help you look for jobs in your area of interest through USAJobs. For instructions, please visit USAJOBS Help Center | How to save a search.

Mold: Update Your FEMA Application

If you have not already applied for FEMA assistance and have mold in your home from Hurricane Ian, apply online at DisasterAssistance.gov, call 800-621-3362 or visit a Disaster Recovery Center. If you have already applied for FEMA assistance and now have mold in your home, call FEMA to update your application.

Understanding Your Letter from FEMA

Hurricane Ian survivors who applied for assistance from FEMA will receive a letter from FEMA. The letter will explain your application status and how to respond. If you have questions about your letter, visit a Disaster Recovery Center or call the disaster assistance helpline at 800-621-3362 to find out what information FEMA needs. Understanding Your FEMA Letter | FEMA.gov

If You Disagree with FEMA's Decision

You can appeal and provide more information so FEMA can continue processing your application. Call 800-621-3362 or visit a Disaster Recovery Center to get help filing an appeal. How to Appeal FEMA's Decision | FEMA.gov

Public Assistance for Houses of Worship

Florida houses of worship and other private nonprofit organizations may be eligible for FEMA assistance to help pay for emergency protective measures, debris removal and restoration of facilities damaged by Hurricane Ian. Houses of worship should contact their county emergency management office for more information on how to submit a FEMA Request for Public Assistance.

Privately Owned Access Routes to Your Home

Grants from FEMA's Individuals and Households Program may be used to repair privately owned access routes such as driveways, roads, bridges and docks that were damaged by Hurricane Ian, if the access affects a dwelling that was owner-occupied. Privately-owned Access Routes | FEMA.gov

Personal Property Assistance

If you live in one of the 26 counties eligible for FEMA Individual Assistance and had personal property damaged or destroyed by Hurricane Ian, FEMA may provide financial assistance to repair or replace it based on eligibility requirements. Personal Property and FEMA Assistance | FEMA.gov

Wells and Septic Systems

For private wells and septic systems, FEMA may reimburse you for the cost of a professional, licensed technician's estimate detailing the necessary repairs or replacement of your disaster-damaged systems. FEMA may also pay for the actual repair or replacement cost of your septic system or private well, which typically are not covered by homeowner's insurance. Documenting Ownership and Occupancy

FEMA has taken steps to help owners and renters of disaster-damaged property validate ownership and/or occupancy as part of the application for financial assistance. FEMA now accepts a broader range of documentation.

Visit: Verifying Home Ownership or Occupancy | FEMA.gov for more information.

It's Important to Submit the SBA Disaster Loan Application

FEMA may refer applicants to the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) with information on how to apply for a disaster loan. If your application is approved, you are not obligated to accept the SBA loan, but it's important to submit the loan application as soon as possible to prevent you from being disqualified from other possible financial assistance from FEMA. Critical Needs Assistance

FEMA may provide financial assistance to applicants in the 26 counties designated for Individual Assistance who have immediate or critical needs because they are displaced from their primary dwelling. Critical Needs Assistance | FEMA.gov

Clean and Sanitize Assistance

Eligible applicants may qualify for a one-time $300 payment to help with cleanup of their damaged dwelling. For more information, visit fema.gov/fact-sheet/clean-and-sanitize-assistance.
